David: The Summer Bone Yard Boats just arrived....Another great issue.

Distressed to read the final chapter in the torpedo sterned commuter...What a shame. Also glad to get the final chapter in Ginger's Mystic trip. We wondered what happened to her. We were among the more fortunate...We got out of Hartford airport Sunday and back home that night.

Thanks again for what you are doing to save old boats.

Sent my renewal in this week! I love Bone Yard Boats (both your mag & the actual things!! I had a 36ft 1964 Pacemaker for about 10 years - am really passionate about old wooden boats, the older & smellier & closer to ruin the better!) Want to thank my Uncle Leif for introducing me to you!!

Keep up the awesome work,

Simon
