

1950 CHRIS CRAFT 50'. After being contacted about this 1950 Chris Craft 50' – reportedly hull #1 and named SEA QUEEN – her situation went from bad to worse. She is pictured above in her slip at Murgale Marina in Glen Burnie, MD. In fact, if you check out Murgale Marina on www.Marinas.com there are several great aerial photos of the marina in which this old beauty can be clearly seen, particularly if you 'zoom in.' As you can see from the photo below, she recently took on a bit too much water while at the dock. If there are any hearty souls out there willing to take on such a challenge, they certainly exist among the Bone Yard Boats crowd. If you'd like to take on this project, please give the marina a call at 410-437-0402.

1971 EGG HARBOR FLYBRIDGE SEDAN 37' – SOLD

SUBJECT: 37' EGG HARBOR (from the e-mail bag...)

Thanks for the help dave. I sold the boat to a friend of mine. But I must say your website/newsletter got the most attention and if I hadn't sold it to a friend it would have been your ad that would most likely have been the seller. U have a really great publication. I appreciated your help.

1955 CHRIS CRAFT SEDAN CRUISER 27'. Owner says, "My other Chris Craft is a 1955 Sedan Cruiser (27') w/Mahogany Hard Top. Twin K' Hercules Motors (90 hp. each). It's Mahogany and marine plywood. I think it was the first year CC came out with this ply wood and has the white Nautalex covering on the bow and aft deck. No wood rot, damage, what-so-ever. I have repaired all of it (but there was very little). Cosmetics only needed, and to re-hook up the helm controls again. Comes with the original CC Shipping Cradle! $10,000. Firm/no trades. Go to the book – History of Chris Craft and this boat is the twin to: Peg O` My Heart. Only difference is mine has the optional factory Mahogany Hardtop, w/IVA Light. This boat came out of Michigan City, Ind." Wilmington, NC. Contact Huber at 910-793-8430 or fineregreatsmoke@aol.com.

SUBJECT: WILD OATS (from the e-mail bag...)

We don't want to miss a single issue of your publication... I enjoy looking at all the old boats needing homes and I did more than just look, I bought "Wild Oats" – a 28' [Chris Craft] sedan cruiser found in the summer 2008 issue. I am looking forward to many hours restoring her. Keep up the good work and I hope to hear from you soon. – Mark
